I Will Rise

Each of us at times feels the weight and pain when we have failed on hard times. Often we tell ourselves that we deserve what has befallen us; the guilt, consequences, struggle, and pain.

And yet, that must not be the end of the story for the people of God! We must not cower in defeat or wallow in our self-pity or self-loathing. Bearing the weight of God's wrath is not the destined posture for the child of God, nor is it a place approved for us by the Lord. "He will plead my cause and execute justice for me. He will bring me out to the light, and I will see His righteousness" (Micah 7:9b).

Only in the darkness can you see the stars.

We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give.

It does not matter how slowly you go as long as you do not stop.

-Confucius

What lies behind us, and what lies before us, are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

"Most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be." -Abraham Lincoln

Life isn't about finding yourself. Life is about creating yourself.

Live as if you were to die tomorrow. Learn as if you were to live forever.

When I let go of what I am, I become what I might be.

2 through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we[a] boast in the hope of the glory of God. 3 Not only so, but we[b] also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance;4 perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5 And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. Romans 5:2-7 New International Version (NIV)

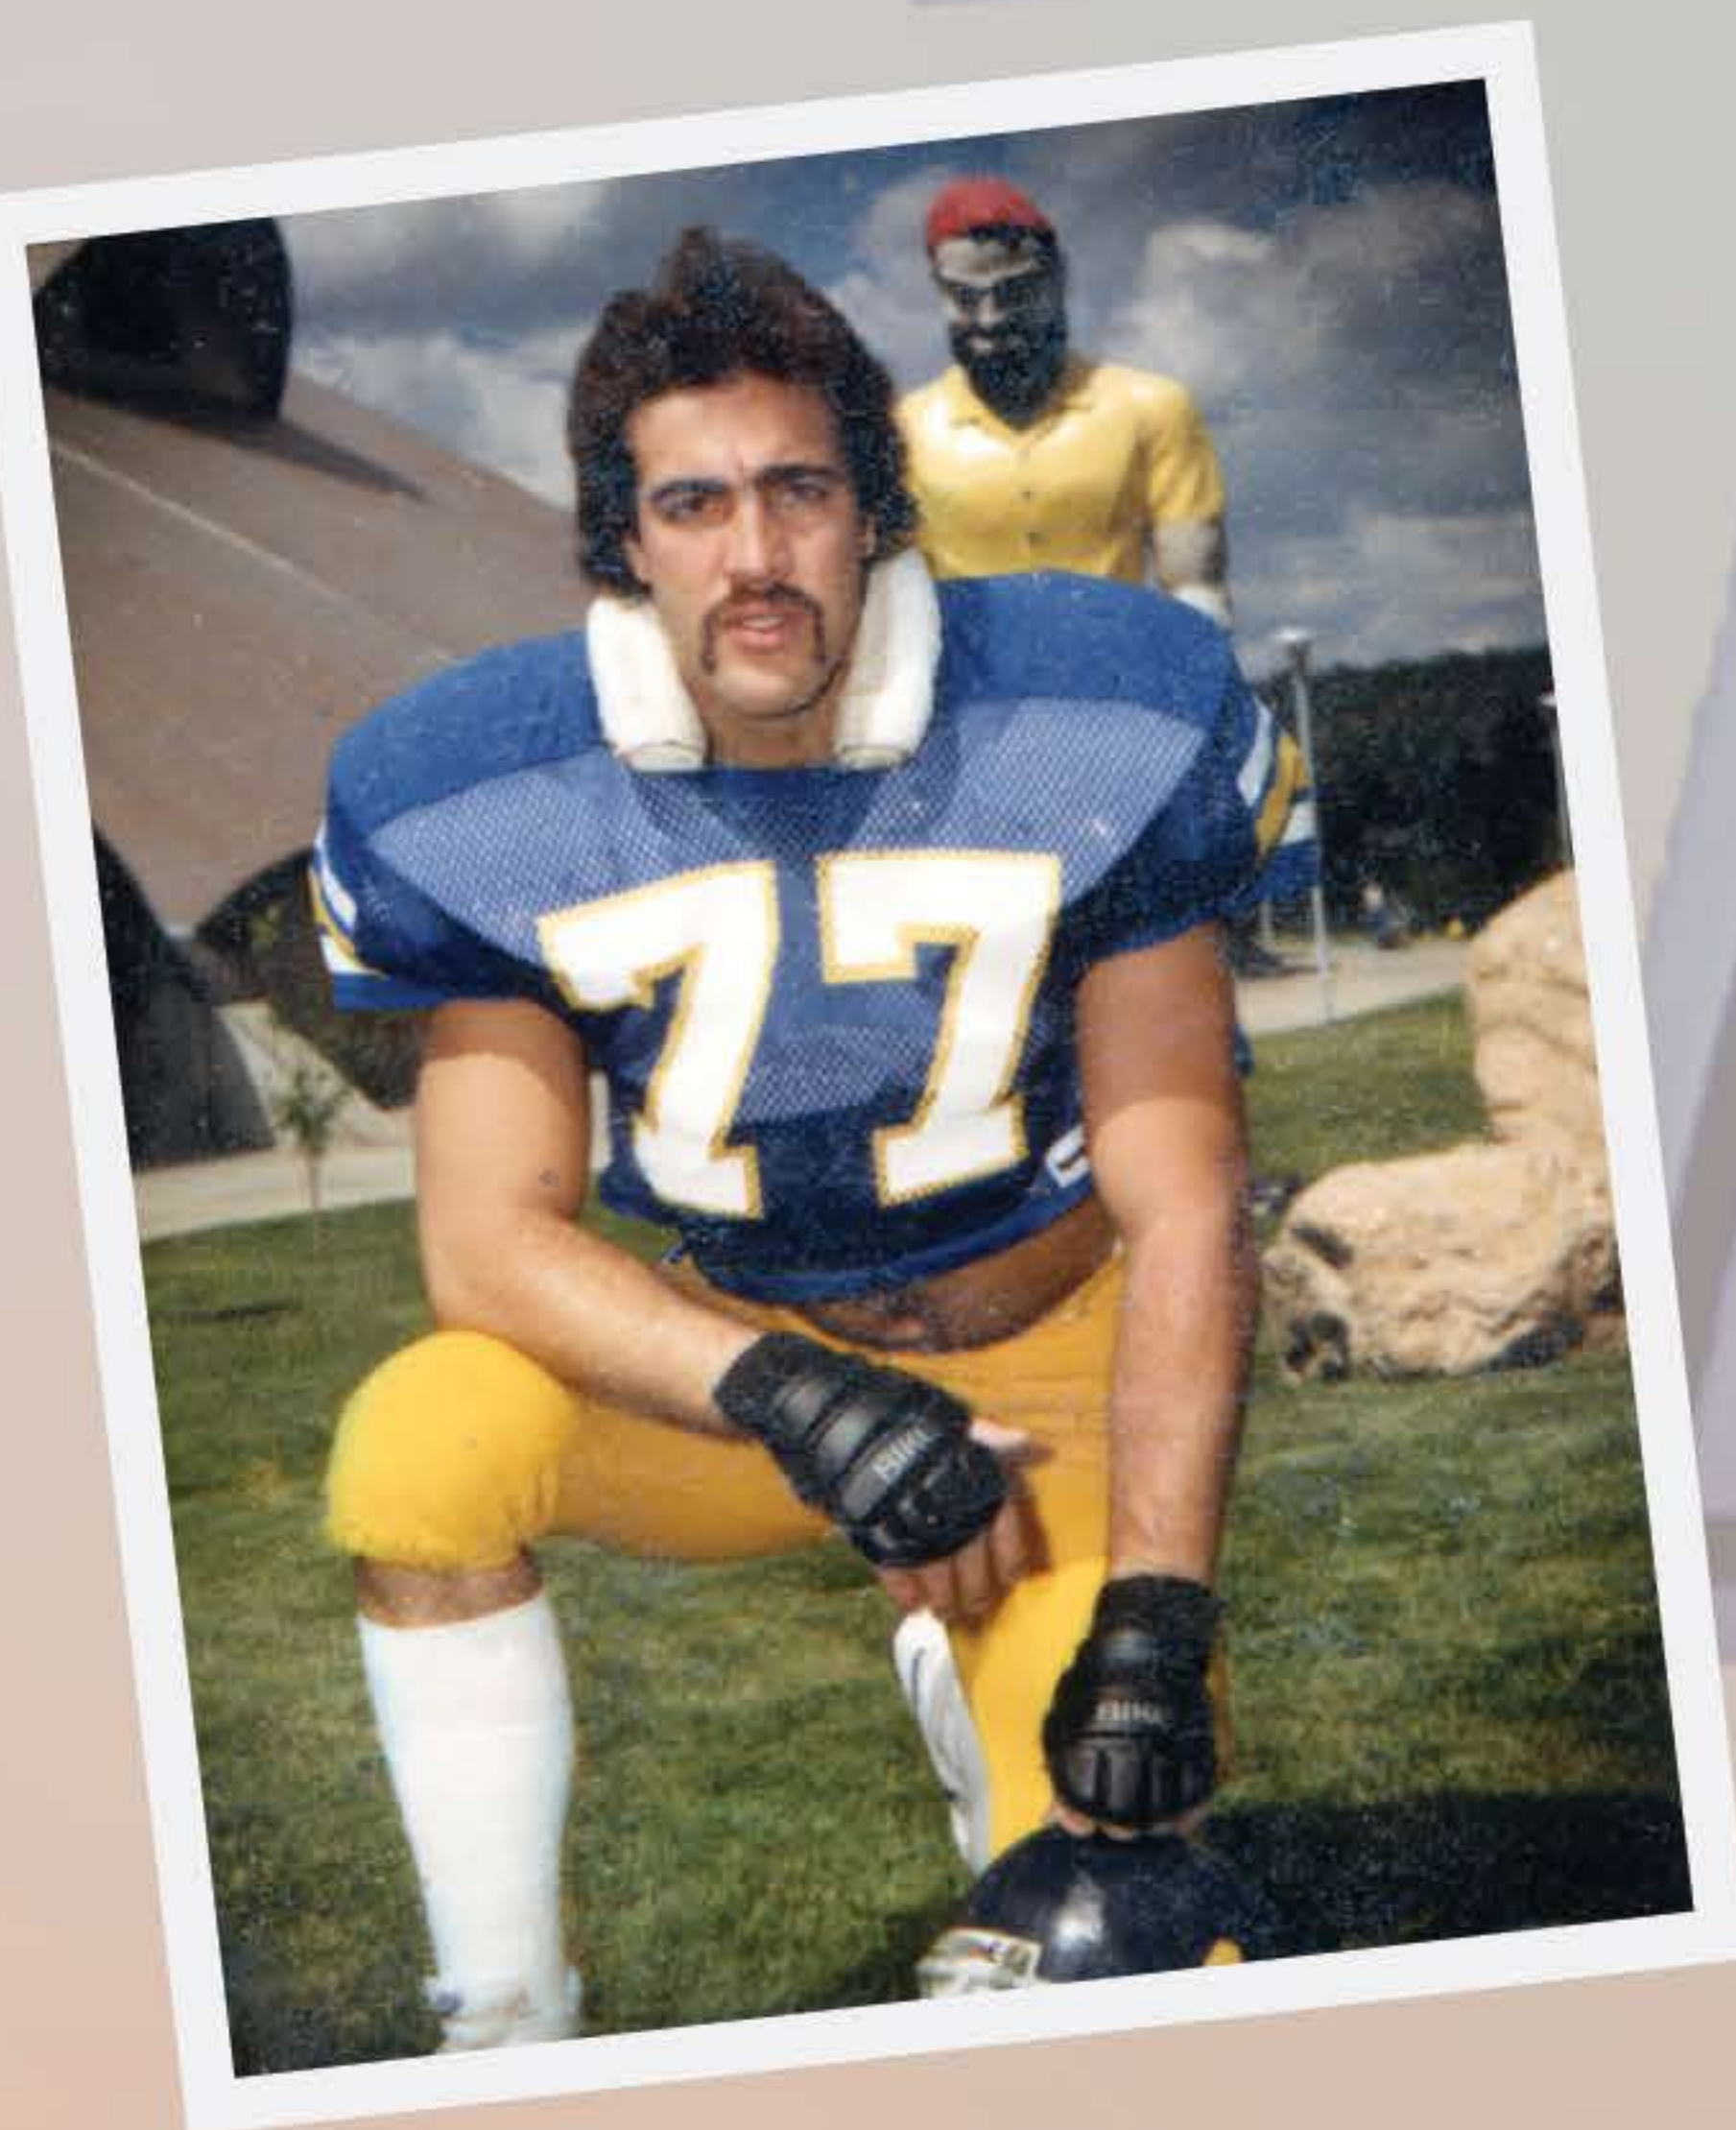

With Love & Hope

JimBro was a human infusion of hope. He was a LOVE warrior to all he met! If you had the privilege of knowing him, you knew he was authentic. His focus was always on grace and resilient hope in the midst of human failure and disappointment.

He was kind and encouraging when he counseled others, whether through personal relationships or his Winning for Life seminar content. He often said "Life is a journey, not a destination. It is the "journey" moments that take your breath away and make it worth it all". His capacity for loving others was HUGE and he lived life by loving to that capacity.

One of Jim's passions was helping others, he would fill boxes with useful items such as grooming supplies, socks, snacks and toiletries and would keep these boxes in the trunk of his car. He would intentionally take the long way home or go out of his way to drive through areas where he knew he would find people in need, and he would stop to give these boxes out.

The JimBro Box is dedicated to carrying on the legacy of James Virgal Bear. Jim (known as JimBro to some) he lived life to the fullest and gave love, encouragement and support to all of those who crossed his path. We are his family and friends with a goal to distribute 100,000 JimBro Boxes!
